

Japanese Cruisers, Bringing 2 Princes, Anchor in Hudson

Head of One of the Imperial
Families Among the 240
Cadets Arriving Here on Voyage Around the World

The Japanese cruisers Irumo and Takumo, training ships for 240 future Japanese naval officers, arrived here yesterday morning from Yokohama by way of the Panama Canal on a globe-circling practice cruise. Exchanging salutes with the battery on Governor's Island, the warships anchored in the Hudson River, opposite Ninety-sixth Street. They will remain here until November 7, continuing homeward via European ports.

Among the midshipmen are their Imperial Highnesses Prince Kuni and Prince Kacho. Prince Kuni is the son of the elder Prince Kuni, a lieutenant general in the Japanese army, and Prince Kacho is the head of one of the fourteen imperial families in Japan.

A delegation of prominent Japanese escorted the cruisers from the Narrows to the anchorage grounds. In the welcoming party were Dr. T. C. Takami of Brooklyn; S. Tajima, manager of Mitsui & Co.; E. Jinushi, manager of Morimura Brothers; S. Imamura, manager of the Daimonito Bank; H. Kashiwagi, manager of the Yokohama Specie Bank; and K. Katayama, manager of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha.

Shortly after the cruisers dropped anchor, Captain Charles T. Voegelé, U. S. N., commandant of the New York Navy Yard, made formal calls on Vice-Admiral H. Saito, commander of the squadron, and Captains N. Uyemura and T. Kanesaka, commanders of the cruisers, K. Kumasaki, Japanese Consul General here, and Captain Osami Nagano, Japanese naval attaché at Washington, also visited the ships.

Visitors are invited on board the cruisers during their stay here. Tomorrow and Sunday the midshipmen will be taken on sightseeing tours of the city, and on Monday the officers of the squadron will be luncheon guests of the Japan Society at the Lawyers' Club.

Paint This Fall

For Winter Protection

Against Snow, Sleet, Rain and Ice

This Summer has been the driest season in years. Surfaces are remarkably free from moisture and in splendid shape to take paint. Of all the seasons, Fall is the time to paint for protection! Winter is harder on the surface than any other season. So paint up now, particularly while paint costs are so low.

Paint Prices Greatly Reduced

Our prices are now back to "before-the-war" figures (that is, the time we entered the war; the time when costs began to advance and raise paint prices). You have not had a double opportunity equal to this for years. You may not get it again for many years. We may never again have such a dry summer, or prices so low; so paint up now.

Get your Sherwin-Williams dealer to give you an estimate based on the new reduced prices.

$39<sup>75</sup>

Coats Regularly
Priced $50 : $60 : $70 : $75

This store has never before announced a reduction sale of Society Brand overcoats in October. Nor, to our knowledge, has any store in America ever held a similar sale. It is not the acceptable time. Time now to sell overcoats at a profit—not to close them out at drastic price cuts.

Here are the finest coats in the land at $39.75. And it is interesting to note that the lowest price advertised around town for coats of average quality is $45.

But the Birthday Sale knows no seasons. And the usual season-end event comes now at the season's beginning. Only the Birthday Sale's high standard of value-giving could justify the proceeding. And such an event can not happen again till another Birthday Sale rolls 'round, if then.
